IID

a policy research institute

IID is a policy research institute that promotes evidence based participatory decision making

It is registered in Bangladesh as a nonprofit organization and have a wide global network

It promotes information and ICT for participatory and informed development

IID is a green-office and practices reduce-reuse-recycle policy

It is a flat organization and practices democracy inside and out

Areas of Work

| Right to Information | Education | Governance | Economy | ICT4 for Development |
| --- | --- | --- | --- | --- |

Research — to address knowledge gap

Communication — to make sense of research

Institute of Informatics and Development (IID)

Participation — to reach the unheard voices

IID
Institute of Informatics and Development

3/11 Humayun Rd, 4th Floor, Block B
Mohammadpur, Dhaka 1207 Bangladesh
Phone: (+8802) 9101016, 9101228, 9145865

www.iid.org.bd     email@iid.org.bd     / iidbd

What we do...

IID
Institute of Informatics and Development

Research

Action Research to support public campaigns, policy changes and development programmes

Impact Analysis of development policies and programmes

Survey with online tools and GPS-enabled smart devices for real-time data check and geospatial analysis at Jorip.org

Communication

Brief Reports such as Policy Briefs, One Pagers, Campaign Toolkits for non-technical audience

Visual Communication of research findings through data visualization, animations and illustrations for easier understanding

Media Campaign on social and development issues through print, electronic and new media

Participation

e-Participation through online media, e-roundtables and e-workshops for wider public active participation

Capacity Building of communities and organizations on research communication and policy advocacy

Roundtables with IID's 'undialogue' approach with a series of pre and post roundtable research and follow-up activities

Grassroots connection with frugal video-conferencing where people and policy makers share development concerns

research
communication
participation