

What we do for a pluralistic and inclusive knowledge society

Inquire

to address knowledge gap

Policy Research

including policy analysis, data gap analysis and impact assessment

Action Research

for evidence-informed policy, project and action plan

Field Surveys

with GPS-enabled tabs and online portal for authentic and geospatial data

Inform

to make sense of research

Communicating Visually

with infographics and data visualization to make evidence understandable

Brief Reports

including policy briefs, one pagers and infopages to keep it succinct

Humanizing Data

by focusing on the people and stories behind the data

Include

to reach the unheard voice

Connecting Grassroots

through online seminar, social media and frugal video conferencing

Policy Engagement

by creating innovative and effective space for policy discourse

Capacity Building

for effective citizen inclusion and policy engagement

Thematic areas

Education & Skills

Democracy & Pluralism

Economy & Budget

Mainstream areas

Right to Information

Youth & Gender

ICT for Development

Areas of Work

Institute of Informatics and Development (IID) is a public policy institute promoting evidence-informed inclusive policy. IID is registered as a nonprofit institute in Bangladesh.

Vision A pluralistic and inclusive knowledge society

Mission

To inquire for evidence on public preferences, policies and practices,

To inform the public and policymakers by making evidence understandable,

To include the informed public in the policy making process.

Inquire

Inform

Include

3/11 Humayun Rd, 4th Floor, Block B
Mohammadpur, Dhaka 1207 Bangladesh Phone: (+8802) 9101016, 9101228, 9145865

www.iid.org.bd

email@iidbd.org

f in yt /iidbd

IID > a public policy institute